

The McCracken County, Kentucky Genealogical & Historical Society was formed in 1977 to promote interest in genealogical and historical research.

Meetings

Second Wednesday of the month – September through May, 1:30 P.M., McCracken County Public Library Meeting Room. A program on genealogy or history is followed by the business meeting and informal sharing. VISITORS WELCOME!!

Membership

Membership is open to anyone interested in family records, family history, genealogy, and local history. Dues are $12.00 per year.

Publications

Books on McCracken County research are available for sale.

Research collection

The Society's research books and other research materials are housed in the Special Collections Department of the McCracken County Public Library, Paducah, Kentucky.

For more information write:

McCracken County Genealogical & Historical Society
P. O. Box 7651
Paducah, Kentucky 42002-7651

Or Email:

specialcol@mclib.net